Avilar Moves Headquarters to Columbia, MD and Opens Sales and Marketing Office in Arlington, VA to Accommodate Growth

Columbia, MD – Tuesday, March 29, 2005– Avilar Technologies, Inc., a leading competency management and e-learning company announced today that has moved its headquarters from Laurel, MD to Columbia, MD and has opened a sales office in Arlington, VA to accommodate its recent growth. Avilar has experienced rapid growth over the last twelve months, attracting new clients both locally and internationally with its leading e-learning and competency management solutions. Avilar staff has more than doubled in the past year and that growth is expected to continue.

“With these two moves Avilar is poised to support its growth needs for the foreseeable future,” said John Skowlund, Avilar’s CEO. “The changes will also allow us to work closer to our government clients and better recruit talented employees. Our success has and will continue to be dependent on finding great talent in the region,” he added.

About Avilar Technologies
